COMING TO THE THEATERS.

Once more Washington theater goers will be delighted by a season of comedy. Frederic Bond and company begin their third mual season in this city, at the Grand Opera House, next Monday night,

Active preparations are being made for opening and the past sacress of this zation will, undoubledly, be repeated luring the coming season. The three-act omedy, "Sir Simon Simple," by Eenry J. Byren, will be the bill for the opening This play had a long and successful run in London upon its first presentation there, the title role being played by the muthor.

The company for the present season will include Frederic Bond, Agoes Findiny and Josian Findiny, who are old favorites here, and raded to their number will be Charles S. Abbe, W. R. Shiriey, E. J. Lalor, Edwin Wailace, Mand White, Ada Curry, Millia Miss Herbert, Mrs. Josian F. Regers, Mrs. Arch. Hopkins, Mrs. T. Nelson Page, Mrs. Mayor Hazeltine, Mrs. Arch. Hopkins, Mrs. T. Nelson Page, Mrs. Mayor Hazeltine, Mrs. Arch. Hopkins, Mrs. T. Nelson Page, Mrs. Mayor Hazeltine, Mrs. Alamont, Mrs. J. M. Schoffield, Mrs. Daniel S. Lamont, Mrs. J. M. Schoffield, Mrs. W. S. S. Lincoll. and edded to their number will be Charles S. Abbe, W. R. Shirier, E. J. Lalor, Edwin Wallace, Mand White, Ada Curry, Millio James, Carvine Moore and Lloyd Curtis, Reserved scale for the concedy season, 25, 50 and 75 cents. General admission, 25 cents. Sents now on sale at the box office.

There are few artists whose permi retirement from the American stage will be more genuinely feit than that of Mr. and Mrs. Kendal, who are now making a fare-well tour of this country, and whose final appearances in this city will be given during the coming week at the New National

During the five seasons that the Kendals During the five seasons that the Kendals have played engagements in the principal cities of the United States, it is safe to say that in so instance have they falled to leave a most delightful and lasting impression on their audiences, while the social attentions they have received from the best people of the land is proof of the high estern in which they are held.

And while during these five seasons they have appeared in many plays which we had seen presented by other companies than theirs, they also made productions of some that were absolutely new to us, clief

some that were absolutely new to us, chis

some that were absolutely new to us, chief among which were "Lady Clancarty" and "The Second Mrs. Tanquerny."
The programme for their forewell engagement here is as follows: Monday evening and Saturday matione, "Impulse." Tanday, "The Iromassier." Wednesday, "The Guesh's Smilling. Thursday, "The Second Mrs. Tanquerny." Friday, "A Sarap of Paper," and for their tinal performance on Saturday sight, "The Queen's Building."

the Metropolitan Opera Company, New York, The season of this organization has been extended until Tuesday, April 30, and

In onler, therefore, to give a thoroughly In order, therefore, to give a thoroughly statistic performance, fully in keeping with the high standard for which Mr. Humichs' morpiciations are noted, it is decined an classific to postpone the opening date until Wednesday, May 1, the repertoire and casts from this date continuing for the balance of the week as advertised.

wille Company will be Manager Kernan's attraction for next week. Peter Maner is the well-known heavy-weight pugilist who is looked upon as the coming cham-nion of the world. On May 30, he will need Steve O'Donnell, Corlect's sparring partner, after which he intends to chal-lenge "Gentleman Jim." Maher will offer a handsome purse to any one who will stand before him four resimis. He will also be before him four resinus, the win area seen in a scientific contest with Billy Remessey, of Boston. The vandecille contingent is especially strong, and includes Campbell and Beard, the novely messent due, the Mayos, authors and conseilurs; Miss May Rhee, the charming vocalist, Conley and Madden, Irish conceilars; Lew C. ther, in his remarkable imitations; Price ed Mack, the kings of black face con d the Keegans, in a refinele sucly sketch.
